

Ozark Club Features Top Talent

One of the top nationally circulated entertainment magazines recently said

"The brightest spot in Montana's entertainment life is the lively Ozark Club in Great Falls. This nite spot consistently books top shows and performers. Currently starring at the Ozark Club in Great Falls (Great Falls is Montana's largest and wealthiest city) is Velma Mays, one of the best of the promising young crop of exotic dancers around the nation. Appearing on the same bill are Evelyn White, who made quite a name for herself in the vocal field last season, and Gene Ball, perennial tap dance star."

The magazine also gave a nice plug to the Ozark Club combo.

calling it "... one of the finer small dance bands west of the Mississippi."

If you haven't stopped at the Ozark club recently, come up and enjoy this fine show tonite. Remember, you always meet someone you know at the Ozark. Three floor shows nitely.
